D READING

Task 1: Jigsaw
Read the text carefully. Your teacher will identify you as A or B. Students identified as A, read Text 1; students identified as B, read Text 2.
Hello, Alia! Let me introduce myself. My name is Hannah.

I know your name from my friend, Caroline. She told me that you sent her an email telling her that you would like to have more pen pals from the US. I’d really like to be your E-pal. You sound really cool!

I guess I’d better tell you something about myself first. I’m 16 years old and I attend Thomas Edison High School here in Minneapolis, Minnesota, USA. I have two brothers and two half sisters and I’m the middle child. My father died a few years ago so my mother runs the house and the family business. My father was a barista.

I have lots of hobbies. I like music – mostly classical music and folk music – but I don’t play an instrument. I like sports, especially tennis and basketball. At school I’m in the basketball team and I spend most of my extra-curricular time playing basket ball. I’m into animals very much. My sister and I have three dogs, a rabbit and an iguana. They need lots of attention as you can imagine. At school, I have many Hmong friends who were not fully fluent in English. Their family moved here from Asia. I enjoy talking to them about our different cultures. My favorite subjects at school are art and geography. I think I’d like to become a park ranger when I graduate, perhaps work for the National Parks Service.

I haven’t got much interest in fashion, although we have ‘Mall of America,’ the biggest mall in Minnesota. We can reach the mall very easily. A commuter train runs every 15 minutes, buses also come from different directions. We can also drive to the mall. It’s much faster than going there by train or by bus.

I don’t like reading but I love drawing and painting.

How about you? Please drop me a line, Alia! Can’t wait to hear from you!

Hannah
A letter from Saidah

Assalamu’alaikum Alia,

It was very interesting to read your letter about yourself and your hometown. I would really like to be your pen friend.

I’m a sixteen-year-old school student from Johor Bahru in Malaysia. Actually I attend an Islamic boarding school just outside the city but my family live in Kuala Lumpur. My eldest sister is a medical doctor. She will get married soon. My younger brother is an elementary school student in KL but he often writes to me via email.

My favorite subjects are social sciences. I like history very much, it helps me know more about different countries existed in the past. At school we are supposed to use English at all times, even when we are in the dormitory, so we have become quite fluent although sometimes we slip back into Malay, which is our mother tongue.

As for hobbies, I’m really into songs and music. My favorite singer is Yusuf Islam whose former name was Cat Steven. He’s so cool! Another singer I like is Maher Zain with his religious songs. My favorite Malay singer is of course Siti Nurhaliza. I also like watching movies, especially comedies. The actor I like best is Tom Cruise.

I’m really into books. I like reading novels and short stories, mostly by Malay authors who you probably haven’t heard of. I like some writers in English, like J.K. Rowling and Indonesian writers too, like Andrea Hirata and Ahmad Fuadi. My dream, when I’m older, is to be a writer of science fiction books set in the distant future.

I’d really love to come to Indonesia some day. I heard that it has the largest number of Muslims of any country. A book that I’ve just read mentions that there are some magnificent places to visit, such as, Bali, Sulawesi, Papua and Borneo! What about you, do you want to visit my country? Wassalam, Saidah

Cheers,
Saidah

4. The government _____ a television station which offers many useful programs and shows few commercials.

5. The teacher and the students were talking about the _____ performance of GARUDA, the Indonesian national football team.

6. Rudi does not understand the local language. His _____ is Indonesian.

7. I am a senior high school student. Now, my childhood in kindergarten feels like a _____ memory. I remember only few classmates.

8. Nina and Ami are good friends at college. They used to _____ the same schools, from elementary to secondary.

9. An _____ is someone you make friends with by writing emails. He/She might live in another country, so you might never meet him/her.

10. Firda is now very happy to have a _____, a baby girl from her mother’s second marriage.
Task 1:
Individually, complete the following chart to find out the structure of the email or the letter above, depending on which text you have read.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Parts of the Letter/Email</th>
<th>Purposes</th>
<th>Details</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Opening</td>
<td>To start the communication</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Contents</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Closing</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Task 2:
Work in pairs (Students A and B) to discuss the text structure, and then share this with the class. Use the following prompts to help:

a. What details can you find in the opening?
b. What’s the purpose of telling the contents?
c. What details can you find in the contents?
d. What’s the purpose of writing the closing?
e. What details can you find in the closing?
Task 1:
Study the following pairs of sentences to identify the use of be (am, is, are) and have (have, has). Do you notice the differences?

Examples:
1. a. I am sixteen years old.
   b. I have an older sister and a younger brother.
2. a. Caroline is in the United States.
   b. She has many friends from Indonesia.
3. a. Nina and Ami are active students.
   b. They have many interesting hobbies.
4. a. I am a computer programmer.
   b. I have many certificates that show my knowledge and skills in computer programming.

   b. He has a lot of friends, who love the coffee he prepares.
6. a. We are amazed by the beautiful scenery.
   b. We have many interesting places to visit in this country.

After observing the above examples, do you know how to decide whether to use am/is/are or have/has? Is it because the subjects are singular or plural? Do you also know when to use have/has instead of am/is/are? Is it because the sentences have complements? Is it because the sentences have objects?

Task 2:
Complete the sentences with be or have. Remember to use the correct forms.

Picture 1.6
Imagine that you’re invited to that party. Think about a new identity that you have. Then, talk to the other guests and introduce yourself; tell about your family, your profession, and your hobbies. You may ask another guest with questions like:

May I know your name please?
Can you tell me what your profession is? Or,
What do you do?
What’re your hobbies?
Do you like painting?
Do you like music?

Think of other questions. You may also introduce your friends to other guests. Introduce yourself or your friends to at least two people.

WRITING

Responding to an email / a letter

Imagine that you’re Alia. Write an email or a letter responding to the email or letter you’ve read and discussed. Use the following questions to guide you.

Guiding questions for the email/letter:

1. What do you write to start your response to an email/a letter?
2. What details do you write in your email/letter? (How old are you? Where do you attend senior high school? What are your hobbies? How many siblings do you have? Etc.)
3. What do you write to end your letter/email?
At the end of this chapter, ask yourself the following questions to know how effective your learning process is.

1. Have you been able to understand the letter/email and the talk about one self?
2. Do you know how to describe yourself?
3. Can you write or talk about yourself?

If your answer is ‘no’ to one of these questions, see your teacher and discuss with him/her on how to make you understand and be able to write or talk about yourself better.
"Accept responsibility for your life. Know that it is you who will get you where you want to go, no one else."
